It has been a busy week with Carols by Candlelight at the Ashford International, wreath making with the PTFA, years 5 and 6 visiting London, Sparkles Morning and preparation for the Year R and Key Stage 1 production. Christmas at Mersham is very much under way! Next week, the festivities continue with the Year R and Key Stage 1 production, Christmas dinner, class Christmas parties, the pantomime and the Church Service on Friday. With so many events occurring, please check all communications from the school to ensure you have all the correct information.

Carols by Candlelight

On Monday evening, Year 6 members of the school choir performed at the Carols by Candlelight concert at the Ashford International Hotel. They performed as part of the CARE Foundation Trust's collaborative choir, with 9 schools all singing at the same time. The evening was full of festive cheer and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Well done to all of our choir members- they represented the school fantastically and shone throughout the whole performance. Mrs Fellows

Wreath Making Evening

Thank you very much to the PTFA and The Flower Show for a wonderful evening making Christmas wreaths! The final results were fabulous!
