Thank you to everyone who came along to our Jubilee Tea on the Field – it was such a shame that the heavens opened just at the wrong time! Thank you to everyone for being so understanding about moving it into classrooms/hall – I hope that you were still able to enjoy the children's performances as I know that they all enjoyed performing to you! Thank you to the staff for all their hard work in getting those performances ready. I would also like to say a huge thank you to the PTA, who did a sterling job selling cakes and refreshments, despite the rain. Thank you also to Rev Denyer for judging the cakes – the results are on the PTA newsletter attached.

Duckling Class Book Sale

Duckling class have been busy sorting out all of our lovely books and we have decided we have far too many to fit in our classroom! We would love these books to find a new home and be enjoyed by lots of other children. Due to the building work at the moment it is a little tricky to have a book sale after school so we will be holding a sale every day at 2:45- 3:00pm for children to pop out of class and purchase their books. We are calling all book lovers to come and buy 5 books for £1:00!!! All of the money raised will go towards developing the Duckling class outside area once the building work is complete. Thank you in advance, Mrs Sly and Duckling Class.

Our shop keepers are waiting for you!

Governor Vacancies

We currently have two vacancies on the Governing Board for co-opted governors. These are often sourced from the local community and are people who would like to volunteer to give something back to education. Many businesses also actively support employees in being a school governor. Unfortunately, for these positions, we are unable to accept current parents of the school but should you know anyone else, either personally or professionally, that may be interested in getting involved with being a school governor, please ask them to contact Mrs Chalkley on headteacher@mersham.kent.sch.uk or the Chair of Governors, Lesley Caldwell on chair@mersham.kent.sch.uk.
